Letter to 1C and maddox games

We, all players of il2, waited for long and expected a lot from this game.

And as you knew, most of us bought it.

We expected a game at least twice better than il2.

And what we get ?

An unfinished game...

some bugs even on the most important things: the plane motions some installation problems...

very few planes...

etc etc...

and this after being so late after the planned date of release.

When a game is released, even if some updates will come, it's good from the beginning. I didn't know one could dare release a game bad at first and count on patches to come to make it good.

I knew people can be bad to us, but i didn't expect it was possible to take the piss out of people this way... make us wait so long and hope for this wonder you promised us , and get THIS.

So as i said, and you knew it , most of us bought the game , and you have what you want...well done.

But don't think we'll be screwed another time.

il2 was a magical gift coming from a group of passionates. Obviously, this game i don't even want to name, is only the result of commercial.

You managed to play the same rules as Flight Sim creators: no real improvment, only graphics.

Il2 players are angry. You are thieves and be sure that most of us won't be fooled again by such a bunch of crooks.

It's a shame
